 It is recommended that formula tone E from LSB (p. xxvi) be used for chanting the verses to this psalm.*

As an antiphon, it is envisioned that this music will be sung before and after the chanting of the psalm, with the psalm being chanted according to whatever custom the local congregation may use.

This antiphon may also be sung as a refrain. If so, it is suggested that it would best contextualize the psalm by being sung for the congregation's meditation before the first verse, after verse six and verse twelve, and then again after the Gloria Patri.
