

Verse for the First Sunday in Lent

for unison choir (or cantor) and keyboard

Eph. 6:11 (ESV)

Stephen R. Johnson

Sturdily ♩ = 100

The musical score is written for a unison choir (or cantor) and keyboard. It consists of three systems of music. The first system (measures 1-4) features a vocal line starting with a rest, followed by the lyrics "Put on the whole armor of God, put". The keyboard accompaniment begins with a piano introduction marked mf marcato ma non troppo. The second system (measures 5-8) continues the vocal line with "on the whole armor of God, that you may be able, that you may be able to". The keyboard accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern. The third system (measures 9-12) concludes the vocal line with "stand against the schemes of the devil." The keyboard accompaniment features a melodic line in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand, ending with a final chord.
